

Montelores Family Leadership Training Institute
2014 Graduates and Community Projects

Kristen Banks, 4 Corners 4 Life: Through Suicide Awareness and Prevention Efforts, I am spreading the effort to celebrate life!

Andria Battle, Cortez Youth Center: It is my dream to open a youth center that is responsive to the needs and ideas of youth like me!

Michelle Battle, Cortez Youth Center: Our community will benefit from a place for our youth to relax and be safe, away from drugs and alcohol.

Geoff Byerly, Montezuma Boys' Council: Supporting the social-emotional development of boys as they transition to adulthood.

Maria Fox, Graffiti Clean Up of Cortez: A youth education program aimed to make Cortez "Clean and Green!"

Sybil Jaslowski, Love is Respect, Not Abuse: Implement teen discussions and education on violence in dating and abusive relationships.

Shannon Jones, Family Advocacy: Helping families navigate systems in a positive and productive manner.

Donna Kennel, Achieve it!: Skills and mentoring from business leaders to enable our youth to build better futures!

Monica Montgomery, A Healing of a Second Chance: Teaching teens about the laws that affect them in regards to sexual offender acts and consequences.

Crystal Peterson, 4 Corners 4 Life: Suicide rates in our community have to be shocking. Joining efforts for support will decrease the numbers.

Chelsea Philpott, Loving Touch Respite Service: Partnering with community to provide relief to families who have children with special needs.

Amanda Saunders, Community Play Group: Building relationships, modeling love and kindness, and sharing ideas to promote positive ideas and attitudes for parenting!

Tiffany Small, Cortez Youth Center: Involve community partners into a city-wide acceptance to plan and implement a Youth Center.

Stephanie Wells, Words Can Kill: Raise awareness of the impact of bullying and how it often leads to suicide.
