What do I tell parents about SafeCare? "We work with Montezuma Public Health, a community agency that provides support to families with young children. One free resource they have is called SafeCare. SafeCare provides in-home support to help with challenging child behaviors, learn how to respond to common child sicknesses or injuries, and help remove common safety hazards that children often get into. Montezuma Public Health could tell you more about SafeCare--may I give them your contact information?"

SafeCare® Colorado Referral Protocol

What is SafeCare®?

SafeCare® is a structured, evidence-based, in-home parent support program that provides direct skill training to parents in the areas of parenting, home safety, and child health. The curriculum was designed for parents of children age 0-5 who are at-risk for or have been reported for child maltreatment. In Colorado, SafeCare® is a voluntary program, prevention program to support families. SafeCare® typically takes 18-20 sessions to complete (about 4-6 months) and each session lasts 1-1.5 hours. SafeCare® is delivered in the home by trained home visitors.

What type of families would benefit from SafeCare®?

- Families with one or more children between 0-5 years, who need extra support managing child behavior, keeping their home free of safety hazards, or taking care of their child's basic health care needs.

What will families learn?

- Health Module –Home visitors teach parents to use health guides, identify and prevent common child illnesses and injuries, and decide when to treat at home, call the doctor, or visit the emergency room.
- Home Safety Module –Home visitors teach parents to identify and eliminate safety and health hazards and childproof the home while educating on the importance of supervision.
- Parenting Module –Home visitors teach parents to provide engaging and stimulating activities, increase positive interactions, and prevent challenging child behavior.
